FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PERRYMAN BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION
AWARDED ICIC AND FORTUNE MAGAZINE'S INNER CITY 100 HONOR

Annual Ranking Showcases The Fastest-Growing Urban Businesses In America

(Philadelphia, PA) The Initiative for a Competitive Inner City (ICIC) and Fortune Magazine have announced that one of Philadelphia's leading out of 100 on their 2016 Inner City 100 list. Nearly 900 of America's preeminent inner city businesses were evaluated for this distinction.

Angelo Perryman, President of Perryman Building and Construction, said, "Sixty years ago, this was a dream of my father's. Today, it is the American Dream come true. On behalf of our company and our employees, we are proud of our achievements, but more so in the way our achievements have also created opportunities for so many of our employees, clients, friends and families."

ICIC's Inner City 100 is an annually compiled and released listing featuring innovative, entrepreneurial, fast-growing businesses from around the country with headquarters located in inner cities. Ranked by revenue growth, Perryman Building and construction reported 2015 revenues of and a five-year growth rate of 381% percent from 2011-2015.

Recent Perryman projects include: construction of the Democratic National Convention venue in Philadelphia, Subaru Headquarters in Camden, NJ, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Philadelphia Convention Center and many others.

Perryman Building and Construction is one of the leading, full-service construction companies on the East Coast, self-performing project planning, management and construction projects for pharmaceutical companies, hospitals, transportation, energy, parks and others. Originally founded in 1961 by Jimmie Lee Perryman, Sr. in Evergreen, Alabama, the company's philosophy was and is simple; a quality job performed by quality people always counts. Perryman was especially proud of the number of employees who could go on to build their own dreams, including influencing many families to send their children to college for the first time. The company has completed over 1000 projects and is an active sponsor and participant in numerous community and civic endeavors in its home base, the Mid-Atlantic region. Today, Angelina Perryman, Vice President of Administration, is the third generation of the Perryman family in leadership at the company.
